Arabs Slay 2 Israeli Olympians; 13 Hostage

MUNICH (AP)—The 20th Olympic Games will be suspended this afternoon and a memorial service held Wednesday morning for two Israelis killed on a terrorist raid on the Olympic Village.

A joint announcement by Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, and Willi Daum, president of the Olympic Organizing Committee, was announced at a news conference.

MUNICH (AP) — Arab terrorists armed with submachine guns broke into the Olympic village today, killed two Israelis and held 13 more Israelis hostage in their living quarters. The Arabs, who had boxes of explosives, threatened to kill all the hostages unless 200 Arab terrorists held in Israel were released.

They first set a deadline of noon—7 a.m. EDT. Later a West German spokesman said an extension of the deadline was achieved in negotiations between the terrorists and Moammed Chatib, head of the Arab League office at Bonn, who had rushed to Munich.

The Olympics, founded to foster international understanding, were thrown into balance. After an emergency Cabinet meeting, Israel asked West Germany to halt the games, reliable sources reported. But the games went on, for the time being at least. Chancellor Willy Brandt called a meeting of the West German Cabinet, then flew to Munich from Bonn to supervise in the negotiations.

Police surrounded the Israel building and negotiated with the terrorists.

The raid, a daring and apparently well-planned operation, was carried out by about five men with blackened faces. They climbed over the fence surrounding the village and made straight for the building, also occupied by the teams of Uruguay and Hong Kong.

The terrorists tossed a paper out of a window of the Israeli quarters. It bore the title "Communique" and listed five points of an ultimatum:

1. West Germany must declare itself prepared to bring the Israeli hostages to a place to be specified by the "revolutionary forces" inside the Olympic village.

2. West Germany must provide the guerrillas with three airplanes. The Israelis would be divided into three groups and placed aboard each of the planes. After the first plane left, the other planes would in succession leave as soon as word was received that the previous one had reached the as-yet undisclosed destination.

3. Any attempt to interfere with the operation would result in the killing of the hostages. West Germany would bear full responsibility.

4. The ultimatum deadline would run out within three hours.

5. In the event the ultimatum is not heeded, orders would be given "to carry out revolutionary and just force in order to give the war chiefs of the Israeli war machine a hard lesson."

Dr. Manfred Schreiber, the Munich chief of police, told a news conference the West German government offered the terrorists an unlimited sum of money to call off their siege. The police also offered to send in substitute hostages if the Arabs would release the Israeli athletes.

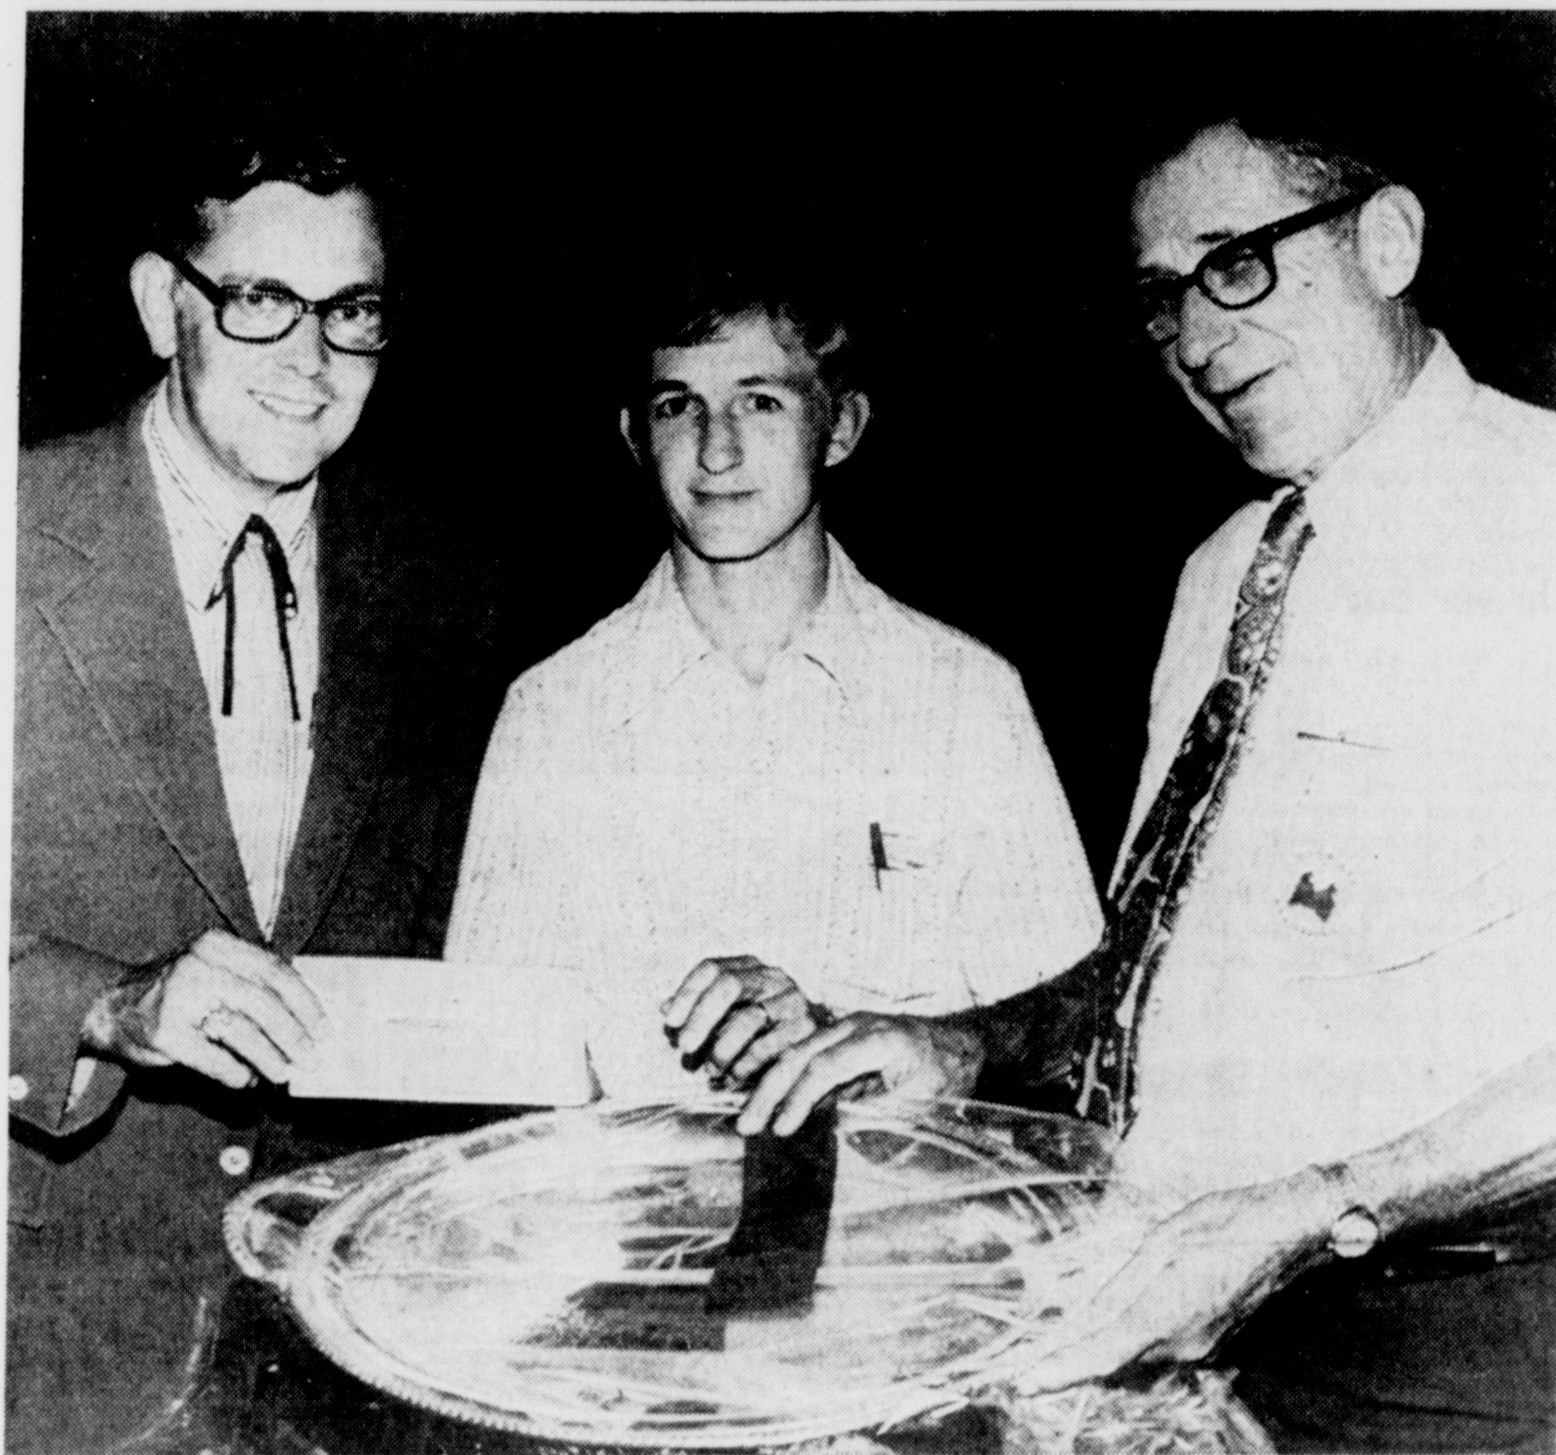

Schreiber said the Arabs refused. Officials said one of the dead men was the team's wrestling trainer, Moshe Weinberg, 32, a former Israeli champion.

The identity of the second Israeli killed could not be learned immediately, but he was believed to have been a judge or a referee.

Radio communication was opened between Munich and Jerusalem, and Premier Golda Meir met with her cabinet in the Israeli capital.

The Bavarian Interior Ministry said there were five terrorists and that negotiations with (Continued on Page 2)

Philadelphia Teachers Open Strike Today

Won't Negotiate On Lengthening Of Work Day

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Public school teachers in the nation's fourth largest city went out on strike today, refusing to give up what the School Board says is the shortest high school working day in the nation.

Affected are 13,000 teachers members and 285,000 pupils, who are due to begin classes Thursday.

The teachers were to report for work today.

Bargainers for both sides agreed that the key dispute centers on the board's demand that secondary level teachers extend their work day from five hours to five hours, 40 minutes.

The board, $52 million in debt, has offered raises of $330 a year to the 5,000 city teachers now at top scale, but also has asked that other salaries be frozen and that 21 positions be phased out by adjustments in class size in an effort to save $11 million.

The teachers, in a list of 400 demands, have asked for pay raises averaging 34 per cent on their scale that now ranges from $8,900 for a beginner to $17,000 for a veteran with a Ph.D.

Jack Soloff, negotiator for the board, said, "Senior high school teachers in Philadelphia have the shortest day of any in the United States ... I feel the problem we face with the PFT (Philadelphia Federation of Teachers) crystallizes around this one issue."

Jon Ryan, the union's negotiator, said, "We're willing to negotiate on the salary package, but we'll definitely not negotiate on the longer high school day or larger class size."

School Supt. Matthew Costanzo has indicated the city's 280 public schools would not remain open unless enough teachers showed up to work. Mary McAleer, president of a faction called the Philadelphia City Education Association, said her group with a "couple thousand members" would cross picket lines.

Nixon In 'Nonpolitical' Trip For Meet In San Francisco

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — "Nonpolitical trips" by presidents seeking re-election are almost as old as the country — and Richard Nixon is making one today, to San Francisco.

Nixon decided to stop in the bay city en route back to Washington to meet aboard a ferryboat with members of his Citizens' Advisory Committee on Environmental Quality.

The focal point of Nixon's San Francisco stopover is his proposal to create a Golden Gate National Recreation Area — a plan awaiting approval by Congress.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said that because Nixon would be wearing his presidential hat during the day and attending to official duties, the taxpayers rather than the Republican party would pay for his round-about flight back to Washington.

When Nixon flew to California the day after last month's Republican National Convention, the GOP picked up the tab because his schedule en route had heavy political overtones.

The San Francisco schedule calls for no public appearances, airport rallies or other things normally associated with overt electioneering.

The Environmental Quality Committee is headed by Laurence S. Rockefeller and includes pioneer aviator Charles A. Lindbergh, entertainer Arthur Godfrey and former astronaut Frank Borman.

The President and Mrs. Nixon were joining committee members aboard the ferry appropriately named "Golden Gate" for a brief meeting.

The Nixons and committee members planned to be aboard the vessel for 35 minutes, presumably taking time to view some of the waterside acreage Nixon wants to turn into a park.

The President and First Lady spent a quiet Labor Day a their San Clemente home — at least until evening when they invited reporters and photographers who cover their activities to attend a poolside cocktail party.

The President was a most relaxed host and as a party "icebreaker" suggested an informal golfing competition on one of three par-three holes installed on his property.

Nixon offered a set of presidential golf clubs to any member of the press corps who could score a hole-in-one — either then or at any point before the November election.

The Chief Executive took eight whacks at the ball from the tee before he reached the green but didn't come close to the hole. Members of the press proved to be no more adept.

Southern Governors Hear Address By Agnew Tonight

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — The Southern Governors Conference hears more talk about Presidential policy today with President Spiro T. Agnew.

Agnew will address a dinner at the conference — two days after Sen. George McGovern, the Democratic presidential nominee came to this island resort for a three-hour parley with the governors.

Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, wounded in an assassination attempt last May, arrived Monday afternoon and also will be at the dinner. He was brought by helicopter to the 18th hole of a Hilton Head country club, where he was met by about 200 persons.

The conference, scheduled to end Wednesday, has been dominated by talk of presidential politics.

McGovern said he sought no endorsements but received two — from South Carolina Gov. John West and Gov. Bob Scott of North Carolina. Scott was the first Southern governor to announce that he would chair the South Dakota's campaign in his respective state.

Scott, whose term expires this year, called a news conference Monday to criticize Democratic politicians who have shied away in large numbers from supporting the national ticket.

"I don't have much use for those people who are too weak to get out and support the party that has given them an opportunity to serve," said Scott.

Maryland Gov. Marvin Mandel, who earlier had endorsed McGovern, told newsmen he felt the two Deep South endorsements represented a "dramatic breakthrough" and he said he anticipated more.

But Mandel agreed with Southern governors who told McGovern that President Nixon currently was far ahead of him south of the Mason-Dixon line.

"It is a very good thing that the election is not being held now," said Mandel.

Montreal Art Theft Investigated

MONTREAL (AP) — The three men who stole $2 million worth of art treasures from the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts Monday got in through a section of the skylight which had been under repair, a museum spokesman said.

"The alarm was only partially functioning," said Bill Bantey, the museum's public relations director, after the robbery early Monday. "If they had gone through a different section of the skylight, the alarm would have gone off."

The alarm did go off when the robbers opened a door to take out the first part of their booty. They fled, leaving behind 18 other paintings they had stacked.

"They left behind far more important works of art than they took," said Bantey.

The 18 paintings stolen included a Rembrandt landscape valued at $1 million and works by Courbet, Daumier, Delacroix and Gainsborough. The masked men also took 39 pieces of jewelry and figurines.

Congress Returns To Work; Money Bills On Schedule

Extension Of Poverty Program Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Back at work after a two-week break, the Senate prepared today to vote on granting a cash award to families of policemen and firemen killed on duty, while the House was set to decide on financing the antipoverty program. Returning following the recess for the Republican National Convention and Labor Day, senators were scheduled to vote on a bill to provide $50,000 tax-free for the family of any policeman, fireman or other public safety officer killed in the line of duty.

House members slated action today on a compromise bill authorizing $4.8 billion for a two-year extension of the antipoverty program. Congressional leaders are shooting for adjournment by the end of the month, but it is likely the session will spill over into October because of a number of controversial issues still to be resolved.

The first measure to be voted on by the Senate provides, retroactive to Jan. 1, 1967, for a $50,000 federal payment to the widow or other dependents of public safety officers killed while on duty.

In addition to policemen and firemen, this would include prison guards, national guardsmen and members of the armed forces assigned to maintain civil peace.

Reds May Replace Med Bases With Copter Carriers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon officials predict the Soviet Union will send helicopter carriers and more intelligence-gathering ships into the Mediterranean to make up for the forced withdrawal of Russian reconnaissance planes from Egypt.

TU16 reconnaissance bombers flying from Egyptian bases had been used by the Russians to keep watch on movements of the U.S. 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean. These planes reportedly returned to Russia several weeks ago after Egyptian President Anwar Sadat ordered Soviet advisers and technicians out of his country.

Most of an estimated 15,000 to 18,000 Russian military men then in Egypt are reported to have left. But the Soviet navy still is using three Egyptian ports.

Pentagon intelligence authorities say the Russians still are adjusting to changes and the possibility that the Soviet navy eventually may have to move its base of Mediterranean operations.

"Reconnaissance will be a problem for them now," said one Pentagon expert.

To deal with this problem, officials said, the Russians probably will augment the 50 or so Soviet naval vessels in the

Holiday Road Toll Reaches 554; Ohio Counts 26 Deaths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Traffic accidents around the nation claimed 554 lives during the Labor Day weekend.

The National Safety Council had estimated in advance a highway death toll between 530 and 680 for the period from 6 p.m. local time Friday to midnight Monday.

The 1971 Labor Day weekend traffic toll was 616.

Ohio motorists drove their cars into trucks, trains, roadside obstructions, pedestrians and other cars over the long Labor Day weekend. The Ohio Highway Patrol reported 26 died in the carnage.

In at least three instances, three cars ran into each other. One car ran into a little girl on her bicycle. A teenager was killed when he tried to ride on a car instead of in it and fell off.

Two motorcyclists cracked up in separate incidents. One ran into a car and the other hit a sign post.

It was a bloody weekend, but not quite as bloody as it might have been. The patrol had predicted 28 would die.

Tourists Become Prisoners Before Moscow Jet Flight

MOSCOW (AP) — Bargain-hunting foreign tourists have discovered that cheap tickets on the Soviet airline can mean cheap service and even imprisonment in a Moscow hotel when the line runs out of plane seats.

About 100 travelers from the United States, Britain, Japan, West Germany and other countries had that experience over the weekend.

U.S. and British consular officials who went to the airline hotel Monday were told that the Americans and British among those stranded had finally taken flight to London.

There was no official Soviet statement on the situation.

The passengers had all bought tickets on Aeroflot, the Soviet government airline, and were supposed to change planes in Moscow. Since they were not stopping over in the Soviet capital, they had been issued no Soviet entry visas. But when they arrived in Moscow, they found that Aeroflot had sold too many tickets and no seats were available for them for several days on outgoing flights.

Soviet visas usually take weeks to get, so the stranded passengers were put under guard on the four top floor of the transit hotel run by Aeroflot. Some were kept there from Friday to Monday, or longer.

Entrances to the floors were locked, and Soviet officials made room checks. The foreigners were not allowed to make or receive telephone calls, but some finally managed to notify their embassies. They were taken to the hotel restaurant in shifts.

Aeroflot refused to put the travelers on foreign airlines with space available because the Soviet line would have to reimburse the Western lines in hard currencies and paid the standard fares.

Although one of the biggest international carriers, Aeroflot does not belong to IATA, the International Air Transport Association, and can sell tickets on its scheduled flights at less than IATA fares.

One stranded passenger said he paid only $475 for a $1,760 round trip ticket from New York to Tehran and return.

Berrigan, Nun Are Sentenced

Mail Smuggling Appeals Rejected

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The Rev. Philip Berrigan and Sister Elizabeth McAlister, convicted of smuggling prison mail that included letters outlining an alleged antiwar plot to kidnap presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger, will face sentencing today in U.S. District Court.

Berrigan, 48, now serving a six-year term for destroying draft board records in Maryland, could get as much as 40 years more, a maximum of 10 years on each of four counts.

Sister Elizabeth, 32, suspended as an art history teacher at Marymount College, Tarrytown, N.Y., could receive 30 years. She was found guilty on three counts of illegally introducing mail in 1970 in Lewisburg (Pa.) Federal Penitentiary where Berrigan then was imprisoned.

Federal Judge R. Dixon Herman, who presided at the 11-week Harrisburg trial that ended in April with the Kissinger conspiracy charge unresolved, last week turned down defense motion to set aside the convictions as discriminatory prosecutions based partly on illegal wiretaps.

Lawyers for the priest and nun argued that thousands of letters are carried in and out of prisons every year, without permission of the warden, and the only penalty for being caught is a suspension of privileges.

Springfield Teachers Will Work

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The 800 teachers in the Springfield City School System will be in class Wednesday when 17,000 youngsters return from summer vacation, school officials said today.

Two teachers' groups voted today to return to class while negotiations with the school board continued to solve a retroactive pay dispute.

The 600 member Springfield Education Association voted to return to class rather than strike in an effort to get school board release of retroactive salary money.

City school Supt. Robert Lehman said he was happy about the decision of the teachers' group and said he felt the retroactive pay question could be worked out. No meeting between the teachers' organizations and the school board was set immediately.

The teachers received a seven per cent salary increase in February, but $250,000 in retroactive pay was not released at the time because of federal wage and price regulations, according to school officials. The teachers contend the retroactive pay should be released and the SEA had threatened strike action to back its demand.

McGovern To Travel In Style

SEATTLE (AP) — Sen. George McGovern has his Democratic presidential campaign flying in style now with two special jetliners which are costing more than $70,000 per week.

The South Dakota senator will be traveling between now and the Nov. 7 election in the Dakota Queen II, a Boeing 727 that's been equipped with a small lounge, a workroom and air-ground telephones.

The Dakota Queen II, named after the B-24 bomber McGovern piloted in Europe in World War II, will be used by the candidate, most of his staff, the Secret Service and a press contingent of about 30.

An identical 727, still unnamed, will serve as the main press plane and will carry some over-flight staff and Secret Service agents.

United Air Lines, which owns and operates the two craft, outfit the planes' interiors at a cost of $61,000, which does not include the more than $70,000 a week in operating costs.

Newsman who travel with McGovern pay their own way — or their employers do.

Until Monday, McGovern had been traveling in regular chartered airlines on a trip-by-trip basis.

The Dakota Queen II seats 58 persons and the press plane seats 88. When in regular commercial use, this model of the 727 seats 123.

Woman Slain In Dispute At Pool Hall

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — A Cleveland, Ohio, woman has been shot to death and two other persons wounded following an argument outside a downtown pool hall and restaurant, police report.

Dead on arrival at Hamot Medical Center of multiple gunshot wounds Monday was Myrtle Patton, 31, officers said.

The two wounded persons — a man and a woman — were taken to the same hospital. They were identified as Matthew Grayson, 38, and his wife, Margaret, 34, both of Erie.

Hospital officials said Mrs. Grayson, sister of the dead woman, was undergoing surgery for wounds of both arms. Her husband was treated for minor wounds and released.

Police said they had issued a warrant for the arrest of Edward Boshom, 41, of Erie, on one count of murder and two of assault with intent to kill in the incident.

A man fitting Boshom's description was taken into custody a short time later in the nearby Crawford County town of Meadville. The suspect, whose identity was not immediately known, was arrested and charged with firearms violations, officers said.

He was lodged in Crawford County Jail.

Police said they had no motive for the shooting.

Freeway To Open

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Ceremonies are planned to mark the opening Wednesday of a $4.6 million section of the Cincinnati Circle Freeway, I-275.

The new portion extends from U.S. 127 to U.S. 27 in Hamilton County, according to Robert F. Bevis, deputy director of highways, Division 8, Ohio Highway Department.

The Circle Freeway, when completed, will draw traffic away from I-75, a congested artery that experiences particular problems with Ohio-to-Kentucky traffic on weekends.

The new freeway will provide two additional interstate bridges across the Ohio River.

Bevis said no timetable has been set for completion of the freeway portions in Indiana. Work is underway on a portion of the route through northern Kentucky.

served in those Egyptian ports as before.

Departure from Port Said of a Soviet naval amphibious group in mid-August prompted some analysts to expect a Russian naval withdrawal from Egyptian ports. However, intelligence authorities say that amphibious group has returned to Port Said.

Senior U.S. naval officials say Syria is about the only country around the rim of the Mediterranean which might provide port facilities to the Russian navy if it finally is ousted from Egypt. But while Syria has received considerable military aid from Russia, the Syrian government is said to be none too eager to provide naval bases for the Soviet Union.

Kissinger Plans Visit To Moscow, West Germany

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, President Nixon's foreign policy adviser, will visit the Soviet Union and West Germany later this month to confer with top officials, the Western White House said today.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Kissinger would be in Moscow Sept. 10-13 to discuss Vietnam and "the full gamut of matters" between the United States and the Soviet Union.

While in Moscow, Ziegler said, he expected Kissinger to meet with party chief Leonid Brezhnev, premier Alexei Kosygin, President Nikolai Podgorniy and foreign minister Andrei Gromyko.

Outspoken Miss Vermont Adds Spice To Pageant

By EWART ROUSE
Associated Press Writer

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Sugar and spice and everything nice—that's what most Miss America contestants are made of.

There's a bit of salt in this year's Miss Vermont, who has made a few pronouncements not usually heard in the honeyed world of beauty queens.

"I can't believe I'm here. I can't believe I'm here. I can't believe I'm here," said the New Englander, Kathy Hebert, at Monday's registration. "This is not the real me. If I were to be my real self, I'd be here in hot socks, jeans, T-shirt, no bra and with my hair hanging loose and natural."

Miss Hebert, a hazel-eyed ash blonde who was addressed in a floral print long gown, says she believes in astrology "and my sign says I'm schizophrenic."

"My dad calls me a kooky freak," she says.

She entered the competition solely for scholarship money to help finance her study in fashion designing at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, N.Y., she says, and doesn't consider herself a typical contestant.

"I'm anti-Nixon; I've demonstrated against the war; I supported Jane Fonda, and believe in premarital sex," she said without pause.

Miss Hebert, a guitarist folk-singer, thinks she has a good shot at winning the talent category of the pageant but not the swimsuit competition. She measures 36-25-33 and weighs 135.

That's 25 pounds less than she weighed last year.

"I weighed 170 pounds in 1971 when I first entered the Miss Vermont pageant and blew the whole thing because of my weight," she says. "They told me if I lost some weight I might win the next time. I reduced this year and won."

The executive director of the pageant, Albert A. Marks Jr., said Miss Hebert was "a rather unusual lady" but added, "I respect her opinions and even more so her right to express them. If this is the way she feels she wishes to project herself, it's strictly her affair as far as I'm concerned."

"She has been outspoken, but this is not necessarily to her disadvantage."

Miss America 1973 will be chosen Saturday, following several days of competition and rehearsals.

Crowning the winner will be Laurie Lee Shaefer, Miss America 1972, who on Monday advised the girls trying to succeed her, "You're all unique individuals. Be true to your characters, don't try to be somebody else."

Pompidou Slates Trip To Red China

PARIS (AP) — President Georges Pompidou has announced that he will make an official trip to China at the invitation of the Peking government.

Speaking to French journalists at Elysee Palace, his official residence, Pompidou declined Monday to say specifically when he would make the trip. But he said it would be in the near future.

Views On TV - Radio

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The people who run television refer to their reporters as "talent." This is a good idea. Any reporter who survives an audition deserves the title.

At newspapers, job applicants show up with their best published works and a keen eye. In television, they show up with old news film clips and polished teeth; then they audition on-camera.

We auditioned on-camera a few months ago on the advice of a friend in television. He thought it would be instructive to see what journalists go through when forsaking pen for microphone.

The tragedy occurred in Los Angeles at a station—which shall be nameless—owned by a major network, which also shall be nameless. For that matter, so will those who set up the audition.

D-Day arrived after a restless night spent smiling in a mirror and gurgling consonants. An acolyte preselected us to the station's news director, who inspected the prospective talent, read his four-minute script and dispatched him without further adieu to make up.

The makeup man inspected the face, whistled softly in dismay and whipped out the powder puffs. Also a toothbrush, with which he straightened the eyebrows on the face.

Then the prospective talent, an epic in pancake, was led to the studio. He was fitted with a neck microphone and told to perch in a chair normally occupied at 6 p.m. each weekday by a man paid $125,000 a year to anchor the evening's news.

The script was recopied in large type on a large scroll and put on a Teleprompter, a device located directly beneath the muzzle of the camera. It gives the illusion the speaker has it all in his head. "Tape is rolling," said the floor director.

So were the talent's eyes. When they stopped, he cleared his throat, looked right at the camera and said:

"Good morn. Sharp fronton broke out today in the frothingshosh district of beamish in northern gnud for the second day consecutive in a row."

Then the floor director's eyes rolled. "Take two," he said. Then he said take three, take four, take five and so on. We were just starting to get the hang of it when the studio was ordered cleared for the 6 o'clock news team.

The friend who arranged the audition came down from the control booth. "We'll talk," he said. In television, that phrase means you are a noodnik and it would be wise to blow town for a while.

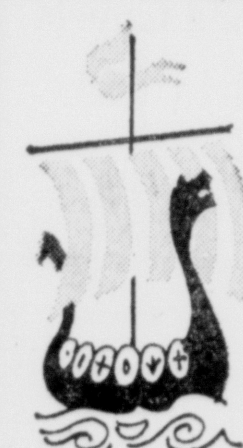

But we didn't know this at the time. After a silence of several weeks, we called the friend and inquired: "Well, how'd they like it?"

"The New York office doesn't think you're ready for broadcast journalism yet," he said after a long, long pause.

"What are they doing with my audition tape?"

There was another long pause. "They're saving it," he sighed, "in case someone needs a four-minute telethon for lock-jaw relief."

Leaving an open package of baking soda in the refrigerator of a recreational vehicle is a good idea as the soda absorbs food smells. When you come back to take you next trip, the musty smell that would normally greet you is absent.

Deplorable Record

The horrible example of violent crime in the United States for many years has been New York City. The resurgent warfare between vying mobs in the city during the last year has resulted in at least 15 gang-related murders.

After two innocent victims were included in the toll, city officials launched what they called a campaign to rid the city of the mob.

Statistics on murders in the nation's largest city, however, reveal the mob is responsible for only a small percentage. In the first half of this year, police recorded 810 homicides, a record number. Fifteen years ago the total was 314 homicides for the entire year.

In nine days, beginning Aug. 15, police reported 64 homicides in the city. On one of those days — Aug. 21 — the toll was 13, more than on any other day in New York's history.

What the horrible carnage in New York this year means is that more Americans are dying by violent means in that one city than on the battlefields of Vietnam. Officials of the city ought to be concerned about all the murders taking place in their jurisdiction, not only the handful executed by hired assassins.

It is not enough to comment, as the city medical examiner did, that homicides are "running heavy, and that's about it."

Success Of Mariner 9

The more than 7,000 photographs taken by Mariner 9 in its orbiting scrutiny of Mars have astronomers sitting on the edges of their seats. The months of study which will be devoted to those photographs could produce the most interesting discoveries about our solar system to date.

Those close-in photos have revealed much about Mars which was totally unexpected. From a canyon which is 10 times as long as the Grand Canyon and four times as deep, the volcanoes which were active in the relatively recent past, to other features which look as if they have been carved out by flowing water — regarded as an impossibility in the present atmosphere of the planet — scientists have discovered much more than they bargained for.

How to interpret these conflicting features in light of what is known about the physical properties of Mars is the challenge. As one official of the NASA team studying the photographs exclaimed: "Anyone who says he isn't astonished is a liar."

Not exactly a scientific observation, perhaps, but an indication of the high state of excitement Mariner 9 has aroused.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

WEDNESDAY'S FORECAST

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A confusing day which is made more difficult because of your eagerness to obtain precise information. Incorrect statements from others could take awhile to replace with actual facts and figures. Use as much time as you can getting your health in excellent condition.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Home is your best place of endeavor now although you want to get into the world of business. Don't bring up an old argument at home or there could be dire results. Be poised.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) One in ill humor could give you a bad time, if you permit, so avoid this person. A new aim you have is not ready to be pursued yet. Study all details carefully.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Think how you can expand in the days ahead instead of working so hard on an unimportant activity. A higher-up is not in a good mood. Avoid this person or you could be disappointed.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Study a new change you want to make or plan a trip you want to make in the future. A new friend can give you ideas and suggestions that are not wise so forget them. Be courteous.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Take care of those responsibilities you have instead of trying to escape from them, since you would only make matters worse later on. You now can come to a far better understanding with mate.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Although you may not agree with others, this is not a good day to argue or you could get into trouble. A civic matter needs study. Plan to take care of it as quickly as you can.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those fascinating young people who has fine dreams for a brilliant future. Teach to study the practical aspects of any situation, so that true facts will be understood and your youngster will not be laboring under any delusions. This is a fine chart for personnel work,

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — The old-fashioned railroad excursion has not only been revived but it is growing like crazy.

"We sell out almost every seat on every excursion," says a spokesman for Amtrak, the government's operating arm for passenger rail traffic. "The only thing keeping us from selling more is a lack of cars."

Amtrak offers a wide variety of tours, from a one-day, New York-to-Washington jaunt for half the usual fare to a 15 day

Chicago-Los Angeles trip. The western one has a return via San Francisco and Reno and costs about 20 per cent less than the regular rail fare.

The longer tours are generally offered by Amtrak in cooperation with a regular tour firm. The tour firms arrange for meals, hotels and sightseeing buses, while Amtrak furnishes the trains. The tours are sold for an all-inclusive price which makes it difficult to say just how much is for rail passage and how much for the other features.

However, one recent traveler discovered that he could spend $618 for two people for a trip from New York to Los Angeles and back on the regular trains. But a longer trip, fares only, on an excursion ticket was only $584 for two. This called for a 9-day trip via Chicago, Denver, San Francisco and Los Angeles but did not include hotels and meals along the way.

Another Amtrak innovation is a rail tour to Florida, including a rental car for seven days. The compact car is included with the purchase of three train tickets, while four tickets will get a full-size car for the same one-week period. The car can be picked up at any of five Florida cities and returned at any of the others.

Unlike the old railroad excursions, many of the longer ones can be started on any day.

However, some of the family plans to Florida must be used only during the week, to take advantage of the lower price for a wife and children. Also, the rates on some routes are higher than on others: for instance, sleeping cars called "slumber coaches" are available on coach fares on some railroads, while other roads require a higher fare for the use of sleeping cars. In both cases, the sleeping car space is charged extra.

For instance, the sleeping car fare (not excursion) from New Orleans to Los Angeles, 2,033 miles, is $128.35. This is on one of the higher-priced lines. But the similar fare from Chicago to Los Angeles, 200 miles longer, is $5 cheaper at $123.

Amtrak says the problem with cars is "our refurbishing program."

"As soon as one comes out of the shop after being fixed up," the spokesman said, "another one goes in. That means we never have any increase in the fleet."

Some of the larger tour firms have solved this problem by buying and maintaining their own cars or even whole trains. They just pay Amtrak a mileage rate for hauling the cars.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I am 76 years old and for years have known that I need a hernia operation.

When I was told that I no longer have a choice I was panicked.

Isn't this too old an age for a safe operation?

Mr. H.G., Calif.

Dear Mr. G.: More and more studies now show that the elderly are not nearly so high a surgical risk as was formerly considered. The new advances in anesthesia are so great that the safety factor has gone up tremendously in recent years.

Before anyone at any age is considered for surgery, all tests are made to be sure that complications will be avoided.

Did you know that when a 5-year-old child goes to the operating room for the removal of tonsils, his blood, his urine, his heart and lungs are carefully studied to insure maximum safety?

More elaborate tests will, of course, be performed on you before your doctor and your surgeon accept you for surgery. It is much wiser to follow our surgeon's directions now, when you are in good health. Far too often people wait and delay surgery only to find complications arise that could have been avoided.

I bought a special motor-driven massage machine which was guaranteed to relieve stiffness of joints due to arthritis.

As a retired railroad man I can ill afford to waste my money on a machine that does me absolutely no good.

Why are these people allowed to sell such fake machines? Mr. F.S.K., N.M.

Dear Mr. K.: As long as gullible people like you and others exist there always will be manufacturers and salesmen to take advantage of you.

How could you possibly fall into the trap of buying an expensive machine without first checking its advantages with your doctor?

Newspapers and magazines are constantly warning the public that quackery takes more than a billion dollars a year from those who are least able to part with their limited funds. By this astronomical figure you know that you are not the only one to fall into the charlatan's trap.

There are some medical conditions, and arthritis is one of them, that do not yet respond to known medical treatments. Many people suffering with arthritis feel that they have explored all the orthodox medical methods and drugs without too much relief from pain. It is understandable that they, like you, would be tempted to try anything that is advertised in the way of drugs or devices that promises them relief.

I have known patients of every social and economic class who have experimented with treatments that they know their own doctor would disapprove of. Anxiety and pain will alter the thinking of the most stable-minded people.

Many devices are manufactured by fly-by-night, irresponsible people who make their sales, fold their tents, and disappear in the night. They always stay beyond the pale of prosecution. For this reason I again advise everyone to ask his doctor to approve a new device.

Abolish Olympics

By JEFFERY HART

As a spectacle, the Munich summer Olympic games are magnificent. Nevertheless, events at Munich have made it clear that the Olympics belong to a phase of Western culture which, perhaps regrettably, is now over. The fuse burned short at Sapporo; the bomb has exploded in Munich and the Olympic idea is dead.

At Sapporo, the Austrian ski racer, Karl Schranz, was banned for professionalism. But everyone knows that non of the leading European competitors is anything other than a professional. The French, Austrian, and Swiss teams are completely supported by big sporting-goods companies. A poor showing by one of these teams is a matter of Cabinet-level concern.

The competitors from the Communist countries are all government employees who earn their living by excelling at sports. Year after year, for example, the Soviet hockey team wins its share of medals, while the U.S. fields a team of college boys. But if the Soviet professionals were to play a team of U.S. or Canadian professionals, you would need a computer to keep track of the score.

And now we are presented with the incredible farce at Munich, which really should be contemplated segmentally, as follows:

a) African teams demanded the expulsion of Rhodesia, on the grounds that the Rhodesian government is racist.

b) Prominent among the African contingents demanding Rhodesia's ouster was, for example, Uganda, which is now expelling the Asian residents of the country—minus their property, of course—in the biggest racial rip-off since the Nazi gas ovens. Nigeria and the Sudan have just wound up bloody and racist civil wars. Kenya is gradually imposing racist sanctions on its non-blacks and is expected to follow the example of Uganda and excel them.

c) But, by a narrow, the Olympic Committee actually voted to expel the Rhodesians. The chief consideration, in the eyes of the bastion of amateurism was... commercial! The Olympic Committee was afraid that the gate receipts would fall off if the blacks boycotted the games.

d) And now recall poor Schranz, booted out of Sapporo for commercialism. Oddly enough, professional athletics tend to be pure in comparison with the amateur scene. What matters is performance. Politics and race don't matter. Even personal animosity and backbiting are held to a minimum. If you asked a leading professional tennis player or golfer to boycott a tournament because a South African was in it, he would look at you in amused disbelief.

The Olympic games, you will recall, are supposed to promote international amity, bring about a common devotion to the ideal of sportsmanship. In actual fact, the games are pervaded by nationalism, and so far as they have any effect at all, aggravate national rivalries.

Professional sports, on the other hand, tend to minimize nationalism. The players compete more as individuals than as national symbols.

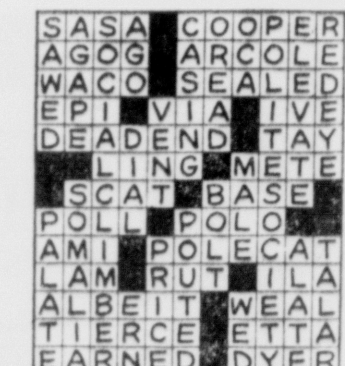

By a kind of paradox, money seems to purify the contest, let it be more purely athletic: while amateurism allows all sorts of political and symbolic matters to intrude, as well as leaving the door open to the fantastic hypercriticisms and contradictions we have seen at Sapporo and at Munich.

I think the inevitable conclusion is that all contests should be "open," the only criterion being athletic skill. The competitors' source of income ought to concern no one. Politics should be kept out. Abolish the Olympics.

River Island Rock Festival Fails To Draw Headliners

BULL ISLAND, Ill. (AP) — Thousands of tired and disillusioned rock music fans deserted this morning, leaving behind tons of trash ranging from makeshift shelters to panties.

The last band at the Labor Day weekend Soda Pop Festival packed their equipment shortly after midnight, a few hours after promoters had left.

Between 25,000 to 35,000 fans remained at that point, still waiting for performances by headlined groups that were promised, but never appeared.

Police estimated nearly 300,000 young people flocked to the 900-acre island in the Wabash River between Indiana and Illinois for the three day celebration. Promoters admitted they had expected no more than 75,000.

The homeward trek caused a mammoth traffic jam.

Although the site is in Illinois, the only access is a one-lane Posey County, Ind., road.

Indiana State Police said they were able to handle the bumper-to-bumper traffic by routing it directly onto the four-lane Interstate 64 cutting across southern Indiana and Illinois.

David Berry, a reporter for the Evansville, Ind., Courier, described the exodus as like a "never ending line of refugees from a war-torn country...carrying tents, sleeping bags and coolers."

In their wake were piles of trash and the smell of camp fires, burning garbage, marijuana and human waste.

A ditch running across the island overflowed with cans, paper, discarded tents and sleeping bags, while junked cars, panel trucks and clothing from shoes to panties were abandoned on the grounds.

Shelters made with rags, boards and blankets were scattered, remnants of a weekend plagued by unseasonably cool weather and rain.

Police said the fans caused few problems off the island, which was patrolled only by security guards hired by the promoters. Indiana and Illinois State Police kept watch from the river banks, and at least 50 persons were arrested coming and going from the festival on alcohol and drug charges.

Two more of the featured rock groups, The Doors and Faces, failed to perform. The top attractions, Joe Cocker and Black Sabbath, had refused to play earlier in the weekend after demanding more money.

Dave Jamison, a staff coordinator for Evansville promoters Robert Alexander and Andrew Duncan, cited problems transporting the musical equipment onto the island through outgoing traffic. The groups themselves were flown in by helicopter, but the equipment was hauled in trucks, Jamison said.

Ohio State Fair Fails To Exceed Attendance Mark

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — It's all over but the cleanup at the Ohio State Fair, where a record Labor Day crowd of 169,558 failed to push the total attendance past the 1970 record of 2,219,000.

The 1972 fair ended up with a tidy 2,209,993 patrons, well past last year's figure, but about 9,000 short of the record. Fair officials had been hoping that this year's 12-day fair might top 2.5 million.

"The job can be done if you've got the weather," fair publicist Lee Ault remarked. "Everybody's looking forward to next year now."

The previous Labor Day record of 158,000 was also set in 1970.

Shriver Hits Nixon Ethics, Takes Slap At Johnson

BOSTON (AP) — Sargent Shriver has deplored conditions of West Virginia miners, said President Nixon has no monopoly on ethics and implied that two key GOP figures are "apparently involved" in the Watergate bugging case.

The Democratic vice-presidential nominee said also, in Boston, that former President Lyndon B. Johnson has "lost his title as the world's No. 1 warmaker to the incumbent, President Richard Nixon."

Driving through the fog-shrouded hills of southern West Virginia, Shriver early Monday visited hospitalized coal miners suffering from black lung disease and accused the Nixon administration of subverting coal mine safety laws by employing "incompetent political hacks."

Then, flying his new campaign plane, "The Lucky 7," to the New York State Fair at Syracuse, Shriver indulged in pastel-blue cotton candy, blueberry yogurt, hot dogs, pretzels and popcorn.

Shriver told newsmen, surrounding him with microphones and television cameras, that he believes both former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and former Secretary of Commerce Maurice Stans were both "apparently involved" in the alleged bugging of Democratic National Washington's Watergate apartment complex.

Mitchell has resigned his position as director of the Committee for the Re-election of President Nixon. Stans remains as that body's finance chairman.

In conversation with a newsmen in Boston, Shriver appeared to modify his statement slightly. He said the insistence of federal judges to question both Mitchell and Stans and their positions with the president's re-election committee, indicate what he called their "involvement" with the case.

Kurfess To Head Solons' Committee To Re-Elect Nixon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — President Nixon's campaign director Clark MacGregor has named Ohio House Speaker Charles Kurfess, R-4 Perkyburg, to head a national State Legislators Committee to Reelect the President.

Kurfess, who faces reelection himself this year along with the rest of the Ohio House, will coordinate efforts of 7,000 GOP state legislators around the country.

"While my primary interest in this year's election is assisting Republican candidates to the Ohio House," Kurfess said, "The extent of the President's election victory may have a bearing on the success of the entire Republican ticket."

"It is therefore incumbent upon all of us who are interested in the future of our state and nation to work actively for the entire Republican ticket," he said.

McGovern Urges Seattle Jobs; Voted Against SST

SEATTLE (AP) — Sen. George McGovern, proclaiming his spirit revived and his hopes high after a boisterous welcome to the Pacific Northwest, called today for federal help to create 25,000 new jobs at the Boeing Co. by providing cleaner and quieter engines for commercial jets.

McGovern, who voted against the Nixon administration's proposal for a federally subsidized supersonic transport to be built largely by Boeing, said the new program could be financed from only "a small share" of $9 billion in recently granted corporate tax relief.

"The cleaner engine would also improve the environment," the Democratic presidential nominee said in remarks prepared for a visit to a food distribution warehouse set up to feed unemployed persons here, many from Boeing.

More than 5,000 cheering supporters greeted McGovern outside his downtown Seattle hotel Monday night after his arrival from enthusiastic receptions at Labor Day rallies and picnics in Ohio and California.

"My spirit is revived, my hopes are high," McGovern told the predominantly youthful crowds, declaring that though polls show him far behind, "I'm ready for the uphill fight against Richard Nixon and I think we're going to win that fight."

As in his other speeches earlier Monday, the crowd especially cheered McGovern's increasingly aggressive attacks on President Nixon and his most prominent Democratic backer, former Texas Gov. John B. Connally.

At every stop — Barborton and Chippewa Lake, Ohio, and Pleasanton, Calif. — McGovern lit into Nixon's Labor Day statement that the Nov. 7 election pits advocates of a "wellfare ethic" with advocates of a "work ethic" such as himself.

"Mr. Nixon is for the work ethic on Labor Day but he's for unemployment the rest of the year," the Democratic nominee told a predominantly youthful crowd of 2,000 at a labor-sponsored fair at Pleasanton, outside Oakland.

Later, in an interview with local television reporters, McGovern linked Connally with AFL-CIO President George Meany, who is sitting out the election while attacking both President Nixon and McGovern.

"I don't think that either Mr. Meany or Mr. Connally or others who usually vote Democratic, but this year have taken a walk. I don't think they're going to decide the election," McGovern said.

He criticized Meany's statement that he is an "apologist" for the Communist bloc as "total nonsense" and said "I don't think the American people believe it."

Miss Gearhart, Mr. Cree Exchange Vows In Saturday Church Ceremony

Miss Mary Patricia Gearhart and Mr. Richard Andrew Cree were married Saturday in an evening candlelight ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church, W. Mound St.

Rev. Henry Walters officiated at the wedding of the daughter of Lt. Col. (ret.) and Mrs. Fred Z. Gearhart, 660 Ridgewood Drive, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cree, Rocky River, O.

The bride and groom exchanged their vows before an altar decorated with twin seven-branch candelabra and large brass vases filled with minuet roses, white and shrimp-colored glads and carnations. The center aisle was trimmed with tall hurricane candles tied with white ribbon bows with miniature carnations and greenery.

A program of nuptial music was presented by soloist Lt. J. G. Lee Kathleen Gearhart, of San Diego, Calif., the bride's sister. She was accompanied by Miss Patricia A. Painter, Columbus, organist.

For her wedding, the bride selected a gown of ivory organza, featuring an empire bodice, high neckline and long full sleeves enhanced with re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls. Matching lace bordered the softly gathered A-line skirt and detachable train. Her chapel-length veil was of ivory illusion edged in lace and gathered to an embroidered lace headpiece trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a free-form bouquet of minuet roses, miniature shrimp carnations and babies breath, centered with pale pink cymbidium orchids.

Her sister, Lt. L. G. Lee K.

MRS. RICHARD ANDREW CREE

Gearhart, served as maid of honor attired in a floor length gown of shrimp-colored chiffon. The dress was fashioned with a high collar and tucked bodice with long full sleeves gathered to a wide cuff. About her waist was a belt of embroidered French ribbon. She carried a large wicker basket filled with minuet roses, gladioli, carnations and babies breath.

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Kristen L. Brown, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Brown of Oakmont, Pa. She was groomed identically to the maid of honor and carried a miniature basket of roses, glads, carnations and babies breath.

Flower girl Miss Tracey Brown of Oakmont, Pa., was attired in a shrimp-colored chiffon gown matching that of her sister. She carried a small basket of pink rose petals. Master Jeffrey Bennington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bennington, Circleville, carried the single ring to the altar for the ceremony.

Robert Cree, of Rocky River, served his brother as best man. Ushers were John Cree, brother of the groom, Ed Kriesel, Circleville, Lt. David W. Gearhart, the bride's cousin of Tampa, Fla., and Timothy Hartsock, Chillicothe.

For the wedding of her daughter, Mrs. Gearhart wore a long formal gown of aqua crepe, trimmed at the neckline and waist in crystal and turquoise beading, with matching accessories.

Mrs. Cree was groomed in a floor-length dress of pale pink crepe with formal pink gloves and accessories to match. Both mothers wore corsages of minuet roses, miniature carnations and babies breath.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the social rooms of the church. The bridal table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with pale pink rosebuds and topped with a miniature wedding bouquet of live flowers. The table was draped with a pale pink cloth banded with white satin ribbon bows and greenery. Hurricane lamps encircled with greenery and miniature pink carnations completed the decorations.

Hostesses were Misses Wendy Bray, Jenie Mahfauz and Mary Lou Luebbe. Miss Kathy Fredericks presided at the guest register.

For a trip through the Western states, the new bride wore a navy blue and white two-piece outfit with floor-length skirt, navy blouse, and the corsage of orchids from her wedding bouquet.

The couple will reside at 2375 Linden Court in Denver, Colo.

The new Mrs. Cree is a graduate of Circleville High School and holds a BS degree in Administrative Sciences from Ohio State University. She is a member of the Tau Chapter of Phi Chi Theta, a women's business honorary fraternity.

Mr. Cree graduated from Logan Elm High School and earned a bachelor degree in chemical engineering from Ohio State University. At college, he was a member of the Varisty "O", Techniki Fraternity and OSPE. He is employed by the Johns-Manville Corp. of Denver, Colo.

Out-of-state guests at the wedding were from West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Florida, California, New York and Toronto, Canada.

Mexico Seeks To Halt Loss Of Historic Relics

By VINCENT MORALES

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Preserving the evidence of Mexico's past has become a double difficult task due to the frequent loss of important relics of cultures that lived here up to 22,000 years ago.

The present government recently passed a law to try to reduce these losses and ordered a substantial increase in the budget for investigation, conservation and restoration of the pre-Colombian legacy. But Mexican authorities doubt that clandestine lovers of archeology and dealers in contraband of the artifacts will abandon the gold mine of pieces buried in Mexican soil.

Officials of the Institute of Anthropology and History (INAH) say more than 11,000 archeological zones, containing ruins from the civilizations of Aztecs, Mayas and many other Indian tribes, ancestors of today's Mexicans, are registered in this country. They believe many more exist and say the vastness of the remains places Mexico fifth in archeological importance in the world.

But the wealth of past cultures has created its share of problems. Only 2600 of the zones have been studied so far and just placing a guard at each site has been a difficult task for the government.

Until 1971 the anthropology and history budget was less than $3 million but President Luis Echeverria has authorized an increase this year because 80 per cent of the budget had gone for the salaries of the 4,000 employees of the INAH, the only organization charged with preserving Mexico's past.

The lack of adequate protection at many of the archeological sites often facilitates robbery of the historic treasures.

4 Ohioans Held For Auto Theft

LEWISBURG, Tenn. (AP) — Four Ohio men who repossessed a car here without a court order have been bound over to a Marshall County grand jury on car theft charges.

The four are Archibald Burney Wilson and the Rev. Albert Cortray, both of New Lexington, Ohio, and Ricky Simco and Wayne Henry, both of Columbus. All are free on bonds totaling $33,500.

New Lexington car dealer and banker Eddie Newlon apparently had asked the four to repossess the 1972 Chrysler Imperial because David Whaley, 27, of Lewisburg, had made the $1,039 down payment with a bad check.

Whaley said Newlon told him either to return the car or make the check good. "I was going to return the car this weekend," he said.

The four Ohio men found the car last week at Whaley's father's home and since they had keys and papers, they said they just drove it away.

General Sessions Court Judge Thurman Thompson told the four they should have had a Tennessee court order to repossess the car and bound them over to the grand jury, which meets in November.

Wilson, a cemetery businessman, and the Rev. Mr. Cortray, a Church of God minister, said they felt they had done nothing wrong in taking the car. Simco and Henry said they came along to help drive Wilson's car and the Imperial back to Ohio.

Adrain drained canned clams to fritter batter, drop into deep hot fat and fry until browned. Be sure to drain the clam fritters on absorbent paper.

Civilians Study Cincinnati Police

CINCINNATI (AP) — Five civilians, including a retired U.S. Army colonel and a retired police captain, have been added as consultants to the Cincinnati Police Division's Community Sector Policing project.

The project is designed to promote closer relations between policemen and residents of certain areas of Cincinnati. It is funded by a $1.9 million grant from the National Police Foundation.

Police Chief Carl Goodin said that the consultants will aid in the updating of "traditional police principles and operating procedures to meet changing needs."

Archeologists say the worst theft occurred during the Mexican Revolution in 1910, but add that the undercover work of private collectors and unscrupulous contraband dealers may surpass it.

Important pieces of pre-Colombian art are in museums in other countries, but INAH officials say none of them were donated by the Mexican government.

Mexican officials say they are trying to recover some of the pieces by exchanging them for other artifacts that are not fundamental to the study of Mexico's history.

During excavations for the Mexico subway system, idols, domestic utensils and other ceramic pieces were found by the thousands. The digs even revealed complete pyramids.

Investigators say they consider each piece important even though it may be similar to others. In each one there is a message, they say. By putting the messages together, Mexico hopes to reconstruct its past to determine more precisely the road it should take for a better future.

The government now plans to take the evidence of Mexico's cultural past to its people by establishing museums in elementary and junior high schools. By taking the artifacts out of the warehouses, the INAH officials feel, they will make citizens aware of the need to preserve evidence of their past.

Dear Abby:

Coat Owner Tries, Can't Change Spots

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago an aunt died and left me a lovely leopard coat. It's about 35 years old, but looks like new. It was recently restyled, is in excellent condition, has a lovely new lining and fits me perfectly.

My problem? You guessed it. I am completely in accord with the conservation of this animal as well as all the others in jeopardy, so I would feel terribly guilty wearing the coat, even though it was purchased long before the animal was in danger of extinction or any measures had been taken to protect it.

I have stored it for three summers now without wearing it once. I don't think it would sell because of the current situation. If you were me, would you wear it? If not, have you any suggestions as to what I should do with it? Sign me "SPOTS BEFORE MY EYES".

DEAR SPOTS: If I were you, I would not wear it because even though you have no reason to feel "guilty" you would be so concerned about what people might think, you wouldn't enjoy wearing it. You might consider giving it to a charity and taking a tax deduction on it. Someone, somewhere would wear it with pleasure without feeling self-conscious.

DEAR ABBY: My parents divorced when I was 4. My mother remarried a wonderful man when I was 12. I have always kept in contact with my natural father and my stepfather was more of an acting father than my real father. I love them both very much.

My problem is this: I am now planning my wedding and I don't know who should give me away. Both men would be proud to do so, but I know each would be very hurt and disappointed if he weren't chosen.

I don't want to elope, so please don't suggest that as a solution. Would it be "kosher" to walk down the aisle with a father on each arm?

DEAR DE: Why not? My father (rest his soul) walked down the aisle with a daughter on each arm!

DEAR ABBY: That marvelous letter about the two salesmen who share the same mistress five days a week is stuck up on my wall in front of my typewriter.

The lady, it seems wants to report what she gets (the money, that is) for tax purposes but it would cost her an extra 1.518 a year.

She should check with her accountant. I think she can report her income as a gift. That way she pays on a gift tax on it, which is nominal, and no tax on the first $30,000. The other possibility is that they consider a third partner, or weekends, which, they say, the girl has off anyway.

This situation reminds me of my law school days back in the mid '30s, when we were all broke, and also girls. Five of us once considered such an arrangement, only we couldn't find a girl who would live on $1.08 a week.

New Device Detects Fingerprints On Cloth

HARWELL, Engand (AP) — Atomic scientists at a Berkshire research station may have made a breakthrough in the fight against crime. They found radioactive material which shows up fingerprints on clothing.

After the substance is applied to an article of clothing, it is X-rayed and the photographic print outlines the fingerprint clearly. A spokesman for Scotland Yard's Forensic Branch says the new process "would be extremely valuable to the police, especially where cases of sexual or other assaults are involved."

Ohio School Enrollment To Decline

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio can expect a slight decline in public school enrollment this fall for the first time in decades, State Supt. of Public Instruction Martin W. Essex said Saturday.

The Department of Education's computer services anticipates 2,429,903 young Ohioans either entered classes this week

Actress Joi Lansing Estate Is Probated

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The late actress Joi Lansing has willed her entire estate to her husband, Stanley Todd, 49, of Marina del Rey.

The blonde actress, who died Aug. 7 of cancer, gained fame for her role in the Robert Cummings television series.

or will be reporting to their schools after Labor Day.

The figure represents a drop of 2,737 students from last year's record high enrollment of 2,432,640.

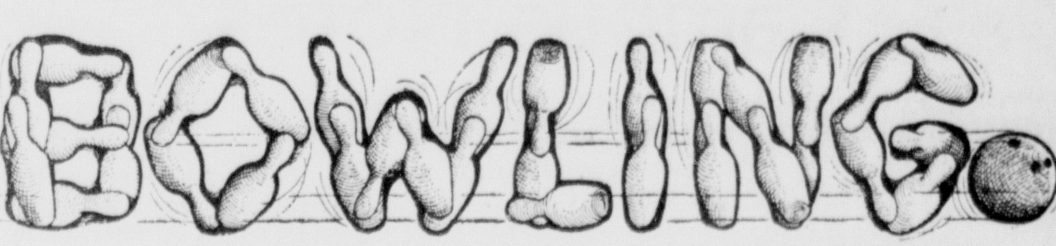

The declining birth totals are causing a gradual reduction in the number of students in grades one through eight, Essex said. High school enrollment, however, continues to increase, due to the higher birth rates of the late 1950s, and the increasing proportion of students who are completing their high school studies, now nearly 80 per cent.

Essex said the 1971-72 total of 1,454,299 pupils in the state's public elementary and junior high schools is expected to drop to 1,429,840 in 1972-73, while high school enrollment is projected to increase from 720,094 to 738,534.

"Information from nonpublic school officials indicates that enrollment in nonpublic schools may be expected to decline from 296,500 to 278,800, a drop of approximately 17,700 students," Essex said.

Crack Down On All Hogs Entering Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio agricultural officials say from now on any hog that enters Ohio will have to be accompanied by proof of where it was born and raised.

Animal services chief Dr. Harry Goldstein said Monday that's the only way to trace the source of hog cholera when the contagious disease breaks out. Officials were unable to find where the recent epidemic which swept the Midwest began.

"We learned one thing," he said. "The identification of hogs that come from southwestern states to Ohio is important."

Seven Ohio herds that came from Horse Cave, Ky., were marked for slaughter, and 29,000 hogs in Kentucky were either infected with or exposed to the disease.

But Goldstein said the disease apparently did not originate in Kentucky but in some southwestern state.

"We will tighten our permit system to the hilt now," Goldstein said. "Our permits will read where the hogs were actually born or raised."

Before, if they came from Horse Cave, Ky., we assumed they were Kentucky hogs."

The last Ohio hogs from Horse Cave were to be destroyed today with the slaughter of a herd in Van Wert County. Only three of the seven Ohio herds actually showed cholera symptoms, but all were killed as a security precaution.

"Because of what they are going through in Kentucky, there is no point in gambling with exposure," Goldstein said.

Sheriff Lists Activity Report

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies investigated 73 accidents in August, according to a report released by Sheriff Dwight Radcliff.

Four persons were killed in two of the accidents investigated and 38 persons were injured in 23 additional crashes.

Leading accident causes were failure to have the vehicle under control and driving left of center.

Of 22 arrests made in August, reckless operation of a vehicle was the leading cause.

Highest accident producing period was between 3 p.m. and 10 p.m. Fridays and Sundays. Circleville Twp. was the leading accident producer.

There were 67 offense reports submitted by Deputies in August.

Eleven were breaking and entering reports, 17 were petit larceny reports, 10 were grand larceny reports, 19 were malicious destruction of property reports and 10 were miscellaneous offenses.

The majority of these occurred in Circleville and Darby Townships.

Circleville and Harrison Townships had almost a third of the 298 aid and incident reports submitted during August. There were 49 taken in Circleville Twp. and 47 taken in Harrison Twp.

The majority of these aid and incident reports were domestic complaints, house checks, suspicious cars or persons and traffic complaints.

U.S. Jets Raid North Viet Railroad

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Air Force jets attacked North Vietnam's northwest railroad to China Monday and destroyed two radar stations used to direct surface-to-air missiles of American planes, the U.S. Command announced today.

On the ground, North Vietnamese forces mounted their third attack since last Friday against South Vietnamese bases in the central highlands. The Saigon command said that an assault was beaten back and claimed 130 North Vietnamese were killed, 100 of them by air strikes. Government losses were five kidnapped and 13 wounded, the command said.

The U.S. Command reported that American jet fighter-bombers carried out more than 220 strikes across North Vietnam Monday, with the northwest railroad and the radar stations the major targets.

The pre-dawn North Vietnamese attack in the central highlands hit the Bau Can base camp, about 12 miles southwest of Pleiku city. The position, manned by about 100 government militiamen, was first shelled then attacked by infantrymen.

Lt. Col. Do Viet, a spokesman for the Saigon command, noted increasing North Vietnamese pressure within a 25-mile radius of Pleiku City, the capital of the Central Highlands.

Viet said, however, the objectives of the North Vietnamese were not immediately clear. He said he did not know whether Pleiku City would be a target. U.S. B52 Bombers have stepped up their attacks in Plei province in recent days and they flew nine more strikes today against North Vietnamese troop concentrations and staging areas 15 and 18 miles southwest of Pleiku city.

On Monday, North Vietnamese forces overran a ranger border camp 23 miles west of Pleiku and sent the Montag-nard tribesmen defending the camp fleeing in all directions. Scores are still missing.

On other fronts in the northern and southern sectors of South Vietnam, battles remained generally stalemated, on the government side.

Military sources told Associated Press Correspondent Richard Blystone at Landing Zone Badly that South Vietnamese infantrymen had pushed into Firebase Ross in the Que Son valley south of Da Nang and occupied the western portion of the strongpoint which fell to the North Vietnamese Aug. 19.

Fighting was reported at scattered points from northeast of An Loc city southward along Highway 13 to the district town of Ben Cat, 25 miles north of Saigon.

Radcliff Heads Shoemaker's Campaign Here

Sheriff Dwight E. Radcliff announced today that he has accepted the Chairmanship of the Shoemaker for Representative Committee in Pickaway County.

The 88th House District includes all of Pickaway and Ross Counties and five townships in Fayette County. Shoemaker is the ranking minority member on the Finance and Appropriations and the Highways and Transportation Committees.

Sheriff Radcliff said that in the very near future he will be announcing the names of the chairman who head up the professional, women, senior citizens, and youth groups that will be working for the reelection of Representative Shoemaker.

Mao's Thoughts Still Primer For Red Chinese

Editor's Note — To continue the Revolutionary "struggle" is the main goal of the new Chinese leaders. They drum this home with single minded purposefulness through nearly all existing means of communication. Prize-winning historian Barbara W. Tuchman, who recently returned from an extended China visit, describes this phenomenon in the following first of four articles.

By BARBARA W. TUCHMAN
Written For The Associated Press

As prescribed by Mao 30 years ago, cultural and intellectual exercise exists only to serve the Revolution. As such it becomes propaganda. Its foundations in China are firm, its structure protective. It exhorts, reassures, and has an answer for everything.

On the basis that Marxism is "irrefutable truth" and Mao Tse-tung Thought the one and only "correct revolutionary line," it presumes an on-going struggle between "the two lines." The other line is revisionism. Meaning the effort to revert to the "capitalist road" as represented by Liu Shao-chi, the veteran Communist and former president until his ouster in 1967, now the anti-Christ of the system.

Meanwhile, the main Maoist principles for keeping the struggle going are: 1. Serve the People; this is the whole purpose of the society. 2. Increase production; all former "consumer" cities and communities must become producers and self-suppliers. 3. Self-reliance; the people down to the most local level must generate their own innovations and energies for the increase of production.

4. Continuing renewal of "revolutionary consciousness" and continuing guard against divorce from the reality of manual labor and the life of the masses. 5. Non-aggression and non-interference in the affairs of other states, based on the dictum that China can never be aggressive because aggression is incompatible with socialism. Non-interference is a rather more elastic matter.

Sixth and most recent — and weakest — is the principle that all states are equal in status. Albania no less than the Soviet Union, Yemen on a par with the United States, and China is the friend of all based on a firm distinction, where necessary, between "good" peoples and "bad" governments.

This convenient credo permits the new "friendship" with countries like the United States and Japan while maintaining an alert against the designs of and against the designs of the Chinese people that all "peoples" are really on their side.

If one suggests to them that under the Western system of representative government, the idea of a chasm between bad government and good people is a delusion and that in fact democratic governments, despite protest and opposition, tend on the whole to reflect their electorates, the Chinese remain happily unconvinced. They rest on Marxist dogma that the working class "masses" are ipso facto always right and thus cannot support what is wrong, like the war in Vietnam. If one suggests that America has no working class conscious of identity as such, they do not comprehend.

The media for communating these six principles and their basic premise make up in persistence what they lack in variety.

The basic form is study groups of Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung Thought in school, neighborhood, office, commune and factory. At the steel smelting plant in Taiyuan, employing 50,000 workers, the study groups meet after work for 1½ hours four times a week with one session devoted to technical subjects and three to political thought and current affairs, occasionally varied by recreation and sport.

When it comes to reading matter, there are two national newspapers, People's Daily and Worker's Daily, distributed by mail subscription, plus various provincial papers. Content is more lectures.

There are two glossy magazines published in many languages and intended mainly for foreigners though eagerly read by the Chinese. And at least one popular magazine presumably obtained, like the newspapers, by mail for there are no newsstands except for occasional small street tables displaying a newspaper and a few pamphlets and Mao Thought booklets.

Although TV exists to the extent of one or two hours of programming a day, I never saw a set outside the hotels for foreigners nor was ever shown one in factory, commune, school, street committee or other institution, much less a home. Radios, however, are prized. Young men walk in the parks carrying transistors.

Bookstores including foreign language bookstores are almost as much a shock as the missing newsstand for instead of color and variety they display pile upon pile of little monotone booklets either of Marxist classics or Maoist Thought or illustrated story books based on the film of the opera or ballet.

That this fare needs some enrichment has evidently been recognized by the authorities, for the new editions, with suitable introductions, of three classic Chinese novels have appeared, as well as the works of some "bourgeois" Western economists. When these went on sale, the crush at the bookstores, according to foreign residents of Peking, was epic, and copies are now hard to come by, as they are always sold out.

Trudeau Slates October Election

OTTAWA (AP)—Canada's long-awaited federal election has been scheduled for Monday, Oct. 30. The announcement was made less than an hour after parliament forced an end to the strike of British Columbia dockers.

Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau said the election campaign would be based on the issue of Canada's unity and independence from the United States.

He told newsmen "the challenge of this election is to ensure that Canadians continue to exhibit the self-confidence and DRAMATIC FINISH — Evgeny Arzhanov, right, of the Soviet Union, plunges to ground at the finish line of the 800-meter final in Munich. Olympic Games in Munich. (1033) of the United States.

U.S. Wins More Gold; DeMont Out

By BOB JOHNSON
Associated Press Sports Editor
MUNICH (AP) — It was a gloriously climatic day for America's aquakids, what with Mark Spitz' magnificent seventh and triumphs by Mike Burton, Karen Moe and Melissa Belote—but the lustre of all that U.S. gold was tarnished by the spectre of doping charges.

Rick DeMont, an asthmatic 16-year-old from San Rafael, Calif., who had already won the 400-meter freestyle last Friday, was ready to go for gold and improve his own world record in the grueling 1,500 meters.

But only minutes before the race, DeMont was "medically ejected" for having taken Ephedrine, an asthma medication. It's presence was discovered in a routine urine test after his victory in the 400.

"I can't say anything," DeMont said, fighting—and failing—to hold back the tears. "I put it all on my forms. I did everything anybody asked. I have nothing else to say."

With DeMont out of the race, Burton of Sacramento, Calif., streaked to victory, shattering DeMont's record with a clocking of 15:52.58.

"I'm sorry Rick wasn't in the race," said Burton, who finished nearly six seconds ahead of Australian Graham Windham, "and I'm not saying I would have beaten him."

The ejection from the 1,500 was not, however, the major letdown faced by DeMont. He faced possible loss of his 400 gold as well. The International Olympic Committee's Executive Committee and U.S. swimming officials meeting was expected early today.

The German word for the spectacular water hole here is "Schwimmhalle," but it could just as properly be called the "Spitzhalle."

The 22-year-old torpedo from Carmichael, Calif., an Indiana University dental student, owns it outright. Seven times he got into the water and seven times he came out a world record-breaking winner.

The finale on Monday was in the 400-meter medley relay. Ahead of him, backstroke Mike Stamm of San Diego and Bruce of Sunnyside, Calif., gave the American team the barest of leads over East Germany.

Then Spitz hit the water for his 100 meter butterfly leg—and by the time freestyle anchorman Jerry Heidenreich took over for the final 100, the U.S. kids had an unbeatable 12 or 13-foot lead. The quartet was clocked in a world record 3:48.16, beating out silver-winning East Germany and third-place Canada.

Miss Moe, of Santa Clara, Calif., led a 1-2-3 U.S. sweep in the women's 200 meter butterfly with her world-record mark of 2:15.57. Lyn Colella of Seattle took the silver and Ellie Daniel of Elkins Park, Pa., the bronze.

Miss Belote, of Springfield, Va., who earlier had won the 100-meter backstroke, became a double gold medalist with her 200 backstroke triumph in 2:19.19, also a world record. Susie Atwood of Long Beach, Calif., was second ahead of Dona Marie Gurr of Canada.

If all this "U.S. swimmers swept..." and "new world record..." business seems repetitive, it is. The U.S. men, for example, grabbed 10 of the 18 golds available and took eight silvers and eight bronzes. And the women won eight of 14 golds, plus five silvers and four bronzes. In all world marks were set in 23 of 29 events and no record from Mexico City 1968 Games—not one—was left intact.

U.S. men should be so fortunate on the track. They got ahead again Monday in a race which, for decades, virtually had a "made in America" stamp on it.

Valery Borzov, who earlier won the 100 meter dash, became the first non-American to sweep the sprints as he won the 200 meters in 19.99 seconds, beating Larry Black of Miami (Continued on Page 11)

Bengals Upend Browns

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati Bengals place kicker Horst Muhlmann foiled Cleveland's plan. The Browns didn't think he would strike at them, but he did, in the form of field goals from 51 and 36 yards.

Veteran Browns guard Fred Hoaglin said he was assigned by Coach Nick Skorich to give Muhlmann a solid block each time the Bengals soccer-style kicker kicked off in the Cincinnati-Cleveland exhibition game at Columbus on Sunday. The Bengals prevailed 27-21.

"We decided to belt him at the start and then, the next time, let him worry," Hoaglin said. "And I wouldn't let him run away. I'd run after him."

"Maybe he'd stop kicking the ball off through the end zone if we scared hell out of him. And maybe he'd choke on field goals."

Muhlmann was slammed by Hoaglin but the two field goals wound up being the difference in the game.

Hoaglin said he studied films of the Cincinnati-Green Bay game earlier this year and noted that Muhlmann's defensive abilities were limited.

"You can tell he hasn't played football before," Hoaglin said after seeing Dave Hampton of the Packers return a kick past Muhlmann. "Hampton broke a return on him and he just stood there."

Hoaglin said that if you hit Muhlmann "good once, then he runs away from you the rest of the time."

Hoaglin said he "really got him" the first time down the field.

"You'd think he'd try to hit back or something," Hoaglin said.

Muhlmann booted the 36-yard field goal in the first period to give the Bengals a 10-0 margin in the game in which the lead switched five times.

Muhlmann connected from 51 yards with one second remaining in the first half and the Bengals took a 13-7 lead.

The Browns finished with more first downs and more total yardage gained, but the Bengals parlayed two pass interceptions and two fumble recoveries.

Their winning drive late in the fourth quarter was set up by a fumble recovery by rookie defensive end Sherman White. Veteran quarterback Virgil Carter guided the Bengals on the drive capped by Jess Phillips' one-yard dive into the end zone with 68 seconds remaining.

				Team Canada Splits With Soviet Squad
				TORONTO (AP) — Team Canada played the waiting game Monday night and reaped the fruits of a costly lesson.
				"We found out a lot by losing Saturday night," said Coach Harry Sinden after the Canadians handed Russia a 4-1 setback at Maple Leaf Gardens to avenge a 7-3 loss at Montreal.
				The Canadians, left in the wake of the well-conditioned Soviet players in the opener, made their own breaks Monday and kept the visiting speedsters in check.
				Training Complex Opened For Browns
				KIRTLAND, Ohio (AP) — When six players assembled Friday in the rookie camp of the Cleveland Cavaliers, only Dwight Davis was assured of being invited back when the veterans reported Sept. 12.
				Well, the camp ended Monday and Coach Bill Fitch says Davis, the National Basketball Association club's No. 1 draft pick from the University of Houston, still holds that distinction.
				Safdy Koufax went into the Hall of Fame with seven pitching records, including four no-hit games he pitched for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Hilarious Way Heads Fine Field In SD Jug Preview

A "Dream Field" of eight sensational 3-year-old pacers going for a record purse of $25,000, sets the stage for Thursday night's long-awaited Jug Preview at Scioto Downs.

Of the eight starters, three have moved center stage as favorites for the prestigious $100,000 Little Brown Jug at Delaware, Ohio on September 21st.

The fourth fastest 3-year-old pacer of all time, the brilliant Hilarious Way, owned by the Gainesway Farm of Lexington, Kentucky, is the slight early choice Thursday night. Trained and driven by Johnny Simpson, Jr., Hilarious Way, a bay son of Bret Hanover winner of the 1965 Little Brown Jug, ascended the sport's world on August 17th when he won the first heat of the Review Futurity in a dazzling 1:55 2-5, just three fifths of a second off of Albatross' world record of 1:54 4-5. Young Simpson proved his colt was the best on that given day when he came back in the second heat to score in 1:57 2-5. The following week, Hilarious Way, winner of the first leg of the pacing Triple Crown, the $134,000 Cane Futurity came right back in the Horseman's Futurity at Indianapolis, and won in straight heats of 1:57 3-5, back in a blistering 1:56 4-5.

Forging his way into the pre-Jug picture is Fast Clip, the bay son of the 1949 Jug winner, Good Time, owned by the Bru-Bill Farm of Pompano Beach, Florida. Co-owned and driven by Bruce Nickells, Fast Clip proved he belongs with this field last week with a sterling victory in 1:56 3-5 in the Geers State at Du Quoin, Illinois.

AFTER finishing second to Berry Hanover in the first heat, Fast Clip unleashed a dazzling second half in :58 seconds to whip Berry Hanover in the second heat for his new career mark of 1:56 3-5.

Sharing the second spot with Fast Clip by just one percentage point behind Hilarious Way is Entrepreneur, the son of Bye Bye Byrd who broke the world record for 2-year-old

Cincinnati Reds Split Twinbill With Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — against Cincinnati's Wayne Sparky Anderson, the manager of the runaway Cincinnati Reds, is playing things awfully close.

Even with a giant lead in the National League's Western Division—8½ games over Houston and 11 over Los Angeles—he's not conceding a thing.

"Maybe, just maybe, one of the two will be out of it in a week since we play both of them," he said reluctantly after the Reds split a double header Monday night with the Dodgers, winning the second game, 8-4, after Los Angeles won the opener, 6-5, on Manny Mota's ninth-inning double that snapped a 5-5 tie.

The Dodgers helped the Reds' cause considerably in the second game, committing a Los Angeles record for errors—seven—and Cincinnati pounced out a dozen hits.

Don Sutton, 14-9, will pitch tonight for Los Angeles in the third game of the four-game series, opposing the Red's Ross Grimsley, 12-6. Wednesday night Al Downing is scheduled

Keegan, French Win Features At Atomic

Under threatening skies again the Atomic Speedway ran a fast race card Saturday night.

Gug Keegan won his third Super Sprint feature at Atomic this year. Jake Dyke led the race for about 11 laps while everyone battled for positions. Keegan took over the lead on a restart and finished ahead of Meeker, Lute, Nunnery & McPeak.

Jim Meeker had fast time, ran second in the fast dash and second in the Consi race. George Harbour won the dash and the second heat but was unable to complete the feature.

Audie Swartz won the first heat but also was unable to finish the feature. Winning the Consi race was Charlie McCann. Back competing again was Tucker Nunnery who was involved in a bad accident at Atomic several weeks ago. He was driving Chuck Browns No. 90 which was in a bad wreck on a different night. Chuck Fletcher who drove the car was back, not driving, but seemed to be helping the pit crew of No. 90.

Dick French, driving the Thompson Special, won his third Super Stock feature of the year. It was his second in as many weeks. Bob Waterman won the first heat. Skip Waterman won the Consi and ran second in the feature ahead of Crace, Beeler & Mossbarger. Jerry McDonald was the winner of the second heat.

Watch Your Step In Istanbul

ISTANBUL (AP) — The moral of this story is to be careful where you walk in Turkey.

An 18-year-old boy in Izmit, western Turkey, took offense when two friends trod on his shadow, considered insulting by Turkish villagers.

Rahmi Sarpay pulled out pistol and shot one of them four times and the other five. Both are in a serious condition in an Izmit hospital.

Devaney Says Cornhuskers To Ignore No. 1 Poll Spot

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — "Your damn polls don't mean a thing until the season's over. Quote me exactly on that."

That's Nebraska Coach Bob Devaney's message to poll takers and newsmen—especially those who call him at night.

Devaney was asked his reaction to the first Associated Press preseason poll, released over the weekend, in which his Cornhuskers, who are shooting for an unprecedented third straight national title, are ranked No. 1.

Devaney was contacted by telephone at his home late Monday night. Efforts to reach him earlier in the evening proved futile. Devaney told a reporter he "picked a helluva time to call," and then gave his opinion of polls in general.

The latest Devaney reaction to the way his team is shaping up in general came earlier Monday, after he had finished evaluating films of a scrimmage held Saturday.

"I think we over-praised our defense," he said. "They weren't as good as we had thought."

Nebraska's top offensive and defensive units trounced a scout team, which was running UCLA formations, 39-7. As Devaney saw it, "for the amount of experience and the time they've been together, they (the scout team) did too good a job of running plays against our defense."

The Top Twenty teams, with first-place votes in parentheses, last season's records and total points. Points based on 20-18-16-14-12-10-8 etc.

1. Nebraska (28) 13-0 920
2. Colorado (13) 10-2 740
3. Ohio State (4) 6-4 620
4. Arkansas (2) 8-3 578
5. Penn State 11-1 550
6. Oklahoma (2) 11-1 538
7. Alabama 11-1 410
8. USC 6-4-1 299
9. Washington (1) 8-3 294
10. Michigan 11-1 296
11. Louisiana State 9-3 257
12. Arizona State 11-1 221
13. Notre Dame 8-2 205
14. Texas 8-3 202
15. Tennessee 10-2 163
16. Mississippi 10-2 168
17. Georgia 11-1 79
18. Purdue 3-7 67
19. Florida State 8-4 40
20. Stanford 9-3 27

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Air Force, Auburn, Dartmouth, Georgia Tech, Houston, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa State, Louisville, Michigan State, North Carolina, San Diego State, Syracuse, Texas A&M, Texas Christian, Toledo UCLA, West Virginia.

In boxing, middleweight Marvin Johnson of Indianapolis scored an easy victory over Ewald Jarmer of West Germany and light welterweight Ray Seales of Tacoma, Wash., scored two knockdowns against Ireland's James Montague en route to a unanimous decision.

Reds Rehire Anderson For Two-Year Term

Cincinnati Reds Manager Sparky Anderson's contract has been extended through the end of the 1974 season.

In making the announcement today, Reds Executive Vice-President and General Manager Bob Howsam said the new, two-year contract "was in recognition of the fine job Sparky has done this season and over the last three years."

Anderson had worked under one-year contracts since being named manager Oct. 9, 1969.

"Sparky is a hard-working manager who has a lot of pride about his work," said Howsam.

"You can see that by looking at our players. They play an aggressive game that's both interesting and exciting for the fan. They play a winning type of baseball. All this is a credit to the manager."

"Sparky has often said he's not out to win a popularity contest." Howsam continued. "His moves on the field have not always been the most popular with the fans or even the players, but he always has shown the courage to make the move he feels is right. That's an important quality in a man."

Anderson guided the Red to the National League pennant in 1970, his first season. The club finished tied for fourth place in the season. The Reds currently are the leaders in the West.

Anderson's major league winning percentage is almost 58 per cent. The Reds were 102-60 in 1970 and set a club record for most victories. They were 79-83 last year.

Anderson, 38, has been in professional baseball since 1953. Sparky's first year as a manager was 1964 at Toronto, where he spent his last four seasons as a player. He managed for Bob Howsam the next four years—three in the St. Louis farm system and one in the Reds, at Asheville in the Southern League. Sparky was a coach for the San Diego Padres before coming to Cincinnati.

Lee Trevino Hartford Open Winner

WETHERSFIELD, Conn.

(AP) — Lee Trevino has not done well in two previous shots at the World Series of Golf, but he goes into this weekend's big showdown with the momentum of a tournament victory and "my game together."

Trevino warmed up for his Akron, Ohio, tourney against Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Gay Brewer by winning the $25,000 first prize in the Greater Hartford Open in a one-hole playoff with Lee Elder.

"I have the momentum," said Trevino. "I'm in the best shape I've ever been in. My legs are strong. In hitting the ball farther than ever before, I've got my game together."

Trevino had to drop a 12-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to get into the playoff with Elder and then sink a dramatic 16-footer on the first sudden-death hole to win the $125,000 Hartford tournament.

Elder, attempting to score his first four victory and thus become the first black to qualify for the prestigious Masters Golf Tournament, could have won in regulation had his five-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole not hung on the lip.

"You wonder what you have to do to win," said a dejected Elder, who won $14,300.

Trevino said he felt like "a heel" for taking the victory away from Elder.

"I know how much this means to him, with the Masters and all," said Trevino. "I felt good that I had won, and then bad. But I wouldn't let my wife beat me if I could help it."

Extension

police killings in the last decade led the administration to request the legislation, Justice Department records list 126 policemen killed in line of duty during 1971, compared to 37 a decade earlier.

The bill also would provide for a payment of $5,000 to an officer for the loss of a foot or a hand or blindness in one eye, and $50,000 for double dismemberment. None of the payments would be subject to federal income taxes.

Another bill to be voted on by the Senate is designed to take the profit out of cargo thefts by authorizing treble-damage suits and other antitrust-type remedies by victims.

The Justice Department said this could serve as a deterrent against fencing and purchase of stolen property. Losses from cargo thefts are estimated at more than $1.5 billion a year.

Another bill would add methadone-maintenance programs to the methods of treatment that federal judges could order for heroin addicts under the Narcotic Addict Rehabilitation Act of 1966.

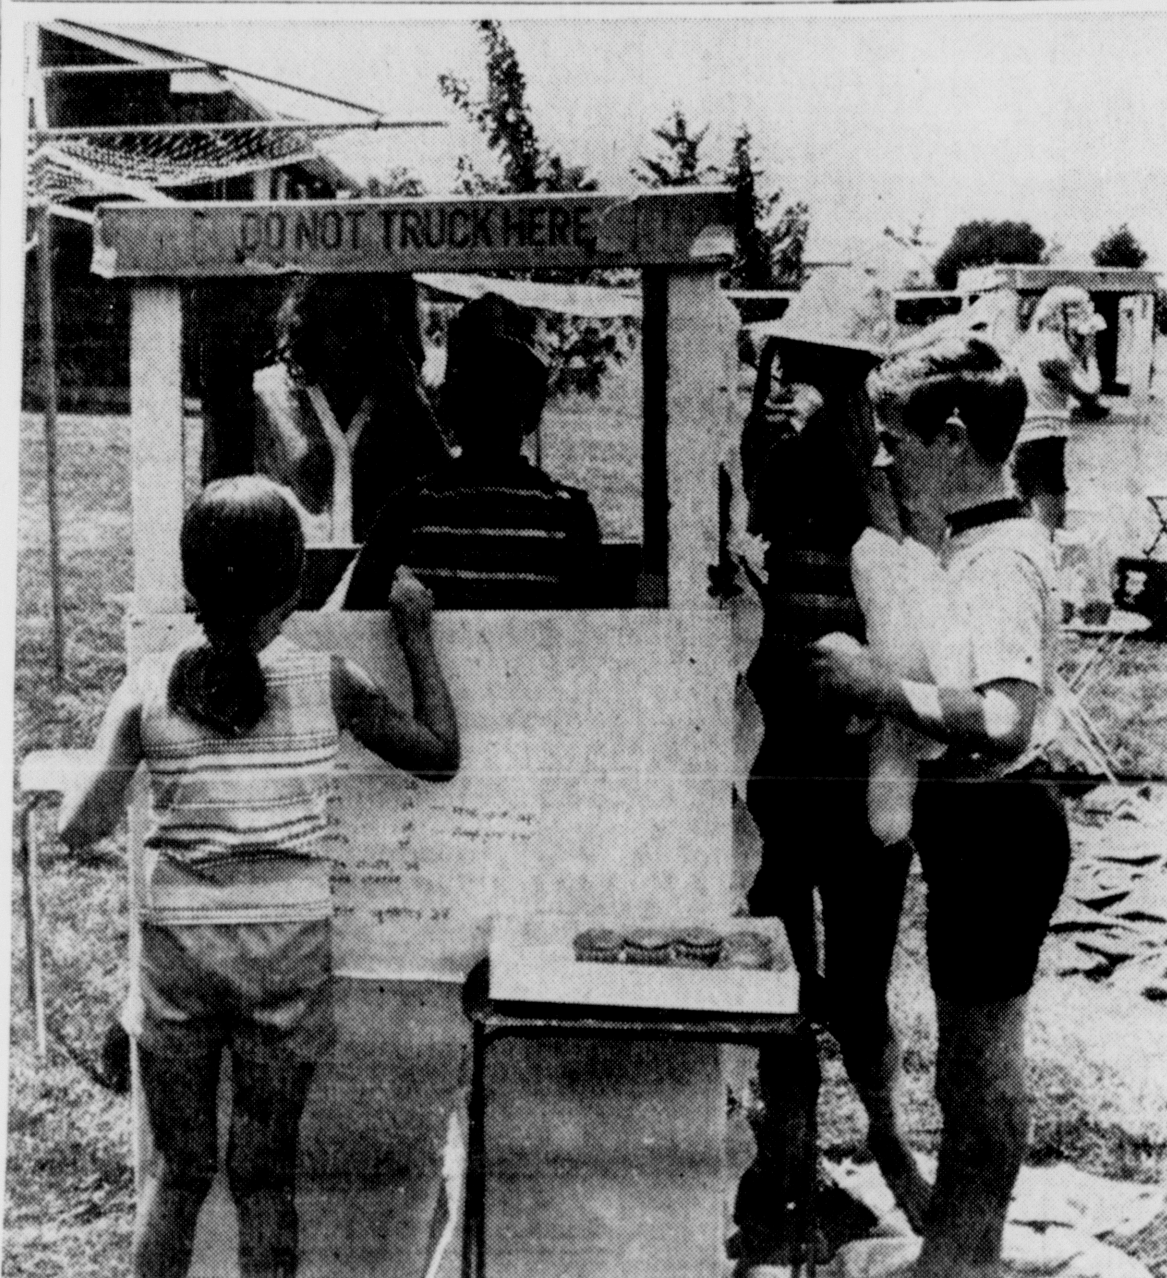

The House already has passed this bill, and only Senate approval is needed to send it to President Nixon.

Too Much Light Effects Greenhouse

READING, England (AP) — For years everything ran smoothly at a horticultural research department in Berkshire where staff studied the effect of light on plants and flowers.

But when a street light was put outside the greenhouses, a series of experiments to help commercial producers grow round-the-year crops was in jeopardy.

The garden is rosy again, however — research head Allan Canham designed a tailor-made lamp shade for the bright light.

LOCAL CARNIVALS — There were 3 carnivals in the Circleville area, to support a national effort, sponsored by Jerry Lewis, to combat muscular dystrophy. The carnivals were sponsored locally by parents so their children could become involved in the campaign. Pledges were then phoned into the Circleville Pledge Center, staffed by Circleville Jaycees and Volunteers Sunday night and most of Monday to coincide with a national telethon. According to totals released, $1,456 were pledged by Pickaway County residents. The Jaycees, who support the campaign as an annual service project, were aided by Circleville High School cheerleaders and GAA members. Carnivals were held by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Contino and their Northwood Park neighbors, with Michael, 10, Andrea, 12, and Chris, 7, serving as ring-masters; the Bryon LeMay Home, Dunkle Rd., with Renee LeMay and Tom Gans as ringmasters; and the Mary Gibson home, 422 S. Washington St., with Kathy and Ruth Gibson as ringmasters.

Stock Prices Move Slowly

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices were narrowly higher in the stock market today, as trading continued at the slow pace of last week.

At noon the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up .38 to 971.03 after being ahead more than 3 points. Advancing issues had a slender lead over declining stocks on the New York Stock Exchange.

"Specialty stocks are getting a ride," said Charles M. Lewis of Treves & Co.

He added that he expected "the summer rally" to "go into an Indian summer rally."

The Big Boards most-active issue was International Nickel, up 1 to 36½ after the company had raised nickel prices 15 per cent.

At noon the New York Stock Exchange index of more than 1,400 common stocks was off .04 to 61.30.

Equipment Stolen From Local Store

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies and agents from the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, London, are investigating the theft of a "large amount of tools and equipment" taken from Contractors and Industrial Supply Co., Route 2 Saturday night or Sunday morning, according to Sheriff Dwight Radcliff.

Missing items include a tractor and mower, cutting torches, chain saws and other miscellaneous equipment.

Robert M. Johnson, 585 Woodland Drive, reported the forcible entry of a non-dwelling in the night season and grand larceny to Sheriff's Dispatcher Russ Adams 4:05 p.m. Sunday.

Deputy Don Thompson, investigating officer, discovered that the culprits gained entrance to the Route 2 west store by forcing the right lower corner of a rear door.

Once inside, they used bolt cutters from the store to snip a lock holding the overhead door in place.

Besides taking the tools and equipment, they pried open a pop machine and took $12 in bills and forced a lower drawer in the office to take $15 in cash.

Deputies report that the thieves drank several bottles of pop while in the store, plugged in and turned on a radio and used gloves from the store to haul away the equipment.

BCI agents investigating the theft are Herman Henry and James Hochenberry.

Youth Arrested For Bike Theft

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Jim Deal charged a 16-year-old Williamsport juvenile with grand larceny after he confessed to the Aug. 23 theft of a 10-speed English racer from another Williamsport home.

The youth arrested admitted he took the bicycle from Looney's back porch and stripped it north of Williamsport. He kept all pieces except the frame, fork and two tires, and used the parts to construct his own bike.

He was released to the custody of his parents pending juvenile court hearings.

Burglars Hit Eshelman Mill

A burglary at the Eshelman Mill office E. Mill St. sometime Sunday is under investigation by Circleville police.

The offices were ransacked and a number of cigarette lighters and pocket knives were taken. Pins had been removed from the hinges on a safe but the thieves failed in an attempt to open it.

Entry to the building was gained through the women's restroom.

Jeff Wallis, 1238 S. Pickaway St., notified police someone entered his garage over the weekend and stole air gauges, a steering wheel and air cleaner.

Mrs. Kenneth Bensonhaver, 227 E. Franklin St., reported the theft of her son's bicycle from Ted Lewis Park.

Denman C. McAllister, 59, Williamsport, operating a motor vehicle without a muffler.

Johnny Smith, 25, Laurelville, reckless operation and unsafe vehicle.
